Its been years since the end of the war with the covenant ,the battles against the flood , and the war with didac ,and his promethiuns . Both humanity and the covenant races have put their differences aside ,and slowly have grown to see each other as brothers .

Today history would be made because both sides would not only be using the newly discovered warp drives .

But also would be the deploying the experimental 20 kilometer U.N.S.C forging paths ,and the 40 kilometer Emperors might ,of the Covenant .

Each ship carrying half a dozen destroyers ,accompanying them would be there escort fleet of fifty ships each [finally learned their lesson of not just sending 1 or 2 ships]

A little girl eating an icecream cone suddenly notices that everything begins to get darker .Only to look up and see an entire fleet of spaceships her mother pulls her towards her . Seconds later a fleet of jets move in to intercept the space ships .

Only to be immediately fired upon destroying half their fleet the remaining jets launch all their missiles ,in an attempt to destroy the alien ships . Just for the alien ship shoot a white beam and destroy both the missiles and the remaining jets.

Her mother now carrying her runs screaming ,all around her people are running desperately trying to get to safety . When she looks over her mother's shoulder she sees people running on top of other people , by the sheer amount of people running the streets become impossible to move in . People being separated from their love ones ,people being run over by cars , while others are breaking into stores .

Not understanding why this is happening she begins to cry ,suddenly from the tvs, radios and the sky a thunderous voice says Humans I have proven that I can crush you ,your defenses and still return home in time to eat .Surrender ,her mother kneels down hugging her tighter crying loudly ,she cries louder.

When a light falls from the sky hitting one of the alien ships causing a loud boom to be heard ,and in one mighty voice that feet as if it shook the planet ,and made everyones cries and screams disappear .

THIS IS THE UNITED NATIONS SPACE COMMAND YOU ARE HEREBY ORDERED TO REMOVE YOUR FLEET FROM EARTH FAILURE TO DO SO WILL BE CONSIDERED A DECLARATION OF WAR .

Looking at the sky she sees it tear open as if the stars were raining from the blue and gold color hole in the sky .

From it came not one but fifty of the scariest and prettiest ships she had ever seen ,each looking as if they had not a single edge on then colored gold ,silver and blue ,with the giant letters U.N.S.C either on the side ,or underneath them .

The bad aliens fire a mixture of red and white lights at the ships only that instead of blowing up a rainbow light up the sky .

Some ships fly in to the sky while others fly all over ,she sees giant boxes fall to the ground ,destroying buildings , the streets get filled with holes .

When the boxes open she sees people coming out of them ,they wear helmets that cover their faces all the same color as their armor ,red,green, blue or yellow .

They start to wave at people to run to them , hearing a loud boom she sees one of the bad alien ships fighting one of the good alien ships .

Hi above the sky lights colored blue,gold,white ,red are thrown from ship to ship when suddenly the bad alien ship explodes ,
